Letter No. 700 dated 11th February 1904 from the Dt. Magte of Bangalore, reporting on the Conduct of Bhatta Subbarayan, an Ex-Convict released under the Ticket of Leave Rules

The facts of the case are:—

One Bhatta Subbarayan, prisoner No. 1167 in the Bangalore Central jail, was released therefrom on 25th September 1903 under Rule 4 (a) of the New Mark Rules on certain conditions. One of the conditions is that he should report himself after release to the Dt. Supdt of Police of his Dt. or in his absence, to the nearest Magistrate This he did not do but went straight to his native place Madanapalli and reported himself to the Stationary Magistrate of that place. In his explanation he states that he was told by the jail clerk to appear before the Dt. Supdt of Police a Dt. Magistrate on the seventh day seventh day of his release, that he remained in Bangalore for 3 days & that as he felt hard for his expenses he went to his native place ~~and that he~~ without obtaining due. taining needful permission and that he was ignorant of the conditions laid down in this ticket. ~~Sections 8 of the Ticket~~

Section 8 of the Ticket-of-Leave Rules lays down that if a prisoner fails to fulfil any of the conditions set forth in the ticket -of-leave, the Govt may cancel the re--mission of his punishment, whereupon he may be arrested by any police officer without warrant and remanded to undergo his original sentence

The Dt Magistrate requests that necessary action be taken by Govt if considered desirable

Subd for orders.

SW 9/11/[illegible] The breach of the conditions committed by the convict does not seem to have been a very serious one, as he reported himself to the Station Master of Madanapalli. It shows that it was not his purpose to evade surveillance The breach may therefore, perhaps, be condoned and the man warned against similar breaches in

If, however, Govt. consider that the remission of punishment should be cancelled, then an application for the convict's surrender will have to be made to the Resident after obtaining particulars of principal offence &c from the Dt Magte. This, as I have shown in another connection will be feasible under s. 12 of the new Extradition Act, 1903, when it is hereafter brought into force; but can clearly do under the existing Act of 1879.

Sir,

I have the honor to report that one Bhatta Subbarazu, who was a prisoner No 1167 in the Central Jail, Bangalore was released therefrom on 25th September 1903 with a Ticket of leave No 59 dated 25th September 1903 Then the first time that was heard of him was from the Assistant Superintendent of Police Cuddapah District

to

to the effect that the ex prisoner stopped in Bangalore for three days and then went away to Madanapalle in Cuddapha District and reported himself to the Stationary Magistrate of that place. According to the conditions mentioned in the "Ticket of leave" he ought to have taken the permission of either the District Magistrate or the Assistant Superintendent of Police of Bangalore before he left it. As he had not done so, the Assistant Superintendent of Police Cuddapha District was requested to kindly obtain and forward the explanation of the said ex-prisoner. The explanation thus taken discloses that the ex prisoner pleads that he was told by the Jail clerk to attend before the District Superintendent of Police or District Magistrate on the 7th Day after release and that as he had no means to stay till then and was ignorant of the Conditions expressed in the "ticket of leave" he went away without the needful permission. As he has committed a breach of the prescribed Conditions, I request that if Government should consider it desirable, action may be taken in the matter under Condition 7 of the rules binding a "Ticket of leave" prisoner.

I felt hard for want of money for my expenses. I was ordered to appear before the Chief Superintendent at Bangalore on the 7th day of October 1903 by my release ticket.
